International Human Rights Day Candle Light Vigil
In Solidarity with the USW Strike at Vale-Inco

Thursday, December 10th
6:00 pm
Starting at the McClelland
Arena in Copper Cliff
Continuing at the Picket Line
at the Vale-Inco Smelter

On December 10th, 1948 the United Nations General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights outlining a set of inalienable rights that every person in the world should enjoy. Chief among them are economic human rights including the right to work and join trade unions (Article 23), the right to rest and leisure (Article 24) and the right to a decent standard of living (Article 25).

To commemorate International Human Rights Day, join the Sudbury District Labour Council for a candle light vigil on the picket line in support of the USW Strike at Vale-Inco.

Sponsored by the Sudbury District Labour Council and the United Steelworkers. For more information e-mail SDLC@persona.ca
